Red Cross

South school students contributed generously to the Junior Red Cross Drive. The grand total of $336.48 was the largest amount given by any school. Leading homerooms were 9B106, 8B112, 9B132, 7B-205, 7B203, 7B202, 9B216, 8B218, and 8B120. Junior high students gave $141.61 while elementary contributions amounted to $62.37.

Members of the Presidents' Council made up the committees for the drive which began November 1. On the committees were Judy Gage, Judy Clark, Denny Johnson, Bob Carlson, Patty Boyd, Paul Osterbeck, and Margaret Whalin. Our Red Cross representatives were Sharon Posey and Charlie Barr. Faculty sponsors were Mr. Guy, Miss Kelley, and Miss Stolz.

To help raise money for the cause, a talent assembly was held November 12. From the show a total of $132.50 was raised by both elementary and junior high. Participating in the program were: Jim Peters, piano solo; Sue Hogg and Laurie Hassberger, vocal duet, George Fraser, trumpet solo; Diane Davis, toe dance; Tom Kackmeister and Bonnie Dewell, accordion-vocal number; Joyce Buggia and Eloise Bragg, pantomime.

Others performing included: Jim Stormont, Nancy Campbell, Barbara Galsterer, Richard Neuwirth, saxophone quintette; Jill Hegenuer, acrobatic dance; Bill Scharffe, pantomime; Diane Orr, piano solo; Sue Dingman, tap; Gary Hayman, accordion solo; Marilyn Joyce and Carol Kemf, tap duo; Nancy Kerns, Jacquie Humphrey, Mary Johnson, and Janet Gage, vocal number accompanied by Mary McGregor. The program concluded with a pantomime by Lana Riseley and Nancy Needham.

Presidents' Council

Patty Boyd was elected president of the Student Council at the first meeting on October 4. Other officers included: Paul Osterbeck, vice-president; Margret Whalin, secretary; and Kay Clark, treasurer. Charlie Barr and Sharon Posey served as Red Cross representatives.

During the first semester the Presidents' Council sponsored a Chirstmas Dance, "The Holiday Hop." Planning the affair were seventh graders Judy Gage and Kathleen Thomas; eighth graders Diane Orr and Dennis Johnson, and from the ninth grade Paul Osterbeck, Margaret Whalin and Patty Boyd.

Themes for the circus ticket sales were discussed at the first meeting of the second semester. "Bugs" was the theme chosen. Patty Boyd was re-elected president at this meeting. Selected to work with Patty were Larry Leddy, vice-president; Marilyn Joyce, secretary; and Mary Johnston, treasurer.

Miss Kelly is faculty sponsor for the Council.

Typists

Achieving a top typing speed of 49 words per minute first semester was Rosalie King. Charmaine Stander's 47 word speed test, also put her near the distinguished goal of fifty words.

Others in the forty word class were Elaine Spears, Louis Harrell, Sharon Posey, Robert Grant, Michael Seidel, and Sylvia Weber.

Just behind with 38-39 were Carol Neiderquell, Mary Ann Hardt, Donald Oltz, John Simon, Joyce Buggia, John Wolf, Carol Baker, Marcia Pfeuffer, Sandra Cornish, Jacquie Humphrey, Nancy Kerns, Colleen McMullen, Geoffrey List, and Calvin Burt.

Congressman Bentley Presents Flag

Highlighting the dedication of our new flagpole was the presentation of a new flag by Congressman Alvin M. Bentley, representative from Michigan's eighth district. The flag has flown over the capitol of the United States.

Receiving the flag in behalf of the school, Pat Boyd, President of the Presidents' Council, gave an acceptance speech. Larry Leddy read lines dedicating the pole; the student body responded.

Carol Kempf was introduced, for it was she who wrote to Congressman Bentley requesting a flag for our school. Special guests included Roy J. McMurray, Supervisor of Physical Education; Lew McLean, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; A. B. Haist, Director of Secondary Education.

The assembly was closed by Miss Drury directing the student body in "The Star Spangled Banner." Our Senior Band played at the beginning and the end of the assembly.

9A ASSEMBLY

Plans are under way for the 9A assembly which will be held Friday, June 3. The program will begin with the salute to the flag by the ninth graders and their eighth grade guests, to be followed by the singing of "This Is My Country," under the direction of Miss Drury accompanied by Miss Kennedy. Reverend Knut O. Savareid, minister of the First Methodist Church, will present the principal address.

Our class prophecy committee, directed by Miss Waytelia, includes Nancy Bruening, Barbara Cooper, Margaret Dean, Judy Geistman, Jackie Green, Wanda Hunter, Sharon McComb, Janice McLeod, Kathleen Janssens, Margaret Piehl, Mary Roberts, Carol Treib, and Roberta Slaton.

Mrs. McDowell and her assistants Carol Baker, Jo Ellen Boegert, Carolyn Burns, Roger Clark, Henry Collier, Bob Crummer, Ronnie Faust, Larry Leddy, Ann Leesch, Pam MacRae, Roberta Slaton, Don Thomas, Garron Weiker, and Wayne Young are working on the class will.

The second hour choir will sing "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" by Lutkin. Stage arrangements will be the responsibility of Carol Doyle, Janet Finley, Jean Pohlman, Bonnie Radley, Pat Ruppel, and Carole Schemm.

Possible gold honer pin candidates, who will be announced at the assembly, include Charlie Barr, Roger Clark, Sandy Cornish, Barbara De LaVergne, Kurtz Downer, Anne Finke, Janet Gage, Robert Grant, Mary Ann Hardt, Jill Hegenauer, Mary Johnston, Nancy Kerns, Rosalie King, Larry Leddy, Ann Leesch, Pat Lodge, Pam MacRae, Barbara Mack, Vincent Mosca, Paul Osterbeck, Marcia Pfeuffer, Sharon Posey, Lana Riseley, William Ruprecht, Gus Schulwitz, Micheal Seidel, Charmaine Stander, Dennis Stewart, Kathleen Stricker, Ann Strickland, Carol Treib, James Verbrugge, and Greg Woidka.

Miss Gay, ninth grade advisor, is serving as general chairman.

First Semester Honor Assembly

Our first semester honor assembly was held February 11 to recognize those students who maintained a high scholarship and citizenship average or who performed some outstanding service for our school. Certificates, "S" pins, honor pins and athletic awards were presented.

To become eligible for an honor pin, a student must have a 3.0 (B) average in scholarship and a 3.5 (B+) average in citizenship. In order to receive a certificate, a 3.0 average in both scholarship and citizenship must be maintained. "S" pins are presented to students who spent extra hours assisting teachers or performing some other special service.

Awards were presented as follows: honor pins— no. 1, 127; no. 2, 20; no. 3, 50; no. 4, 4; no. 5, 33; service pins— no. 1, 45; no. 2, 12; no. 3, 9; no. 4, 1; no. 5, 2; honor certificates, 17; volleyball certificates, 15; audio-visual certificates, 3; and soccer certificates, 38.

Taking part in the traditional candle lighting ceremony were Sharon Posey, Rosalie King, Jacquie Humphrey, Janet Gage, Lana Riseley and Sandy Cornish. The names of those who received service pins were read by Garron Weiker. Mike Seidel read the names of those students who received honor pins.

CIRCUS TALENT ASSEMBLIES

NINTH GRADE

In Michigan's mines a clue you'll find.
Or in the factories near
And it's quite ironic
But in a healthful tonic
My first name is mentioned clear.

My last name's found in the Human Race
Or in the "Charge of the Light Brigade"
In tools like the vice
You'll find it twice.

Can you answer now without aid?

What is done to prisoners
Offers quite a clue
And what Samson did to the Phillistines
Of course the ones he slew.

This was the third and final clue that Mr. Eynon gave at the ninth grade circus assembly.

The winning act proved to be a quartette composed of Mary Johnston, Nancy Kerns, Jacquie Humphrey, and Janet Gage singing "No More".

Other acts included Nancy Needham, with a pantomine, "Steam Heat;" Joyce Buggia and Eloise Bragg, in a pantomine, "Anything You Can Do;" Loren Mohn in a vocal solo, "Hey There;" Woody Wilson singing and playing his guitar to "The Ballad of Davy Crockett;" and Lana Riseley with a pantomime, "Too Young To Tango."

The winner of the seventh grade quiz was Bradey Zittel, a 7A-215. Other contestants were Jeff Pearl, Burris Smith, Carol Lynn Meyers, Mary Bosley, Judy Hurst, Edwin Salesky, Jeffrey Eynon, Jean Boehlke, and Joyce Gaiser.

Also competing for the prize which Miss Stolz won were Mrs. Davis and Mr. Noble. One hundred baby chickens were given to Miss Stolz after she guessed the number Mr. Guy and Mr. Eynon had chosen. All three teachers received a box of candy.

Ad Salesman

In the campaign to get ads for the circus program Bob Montague led the field while Bill McKay and Bruce Southworth came in second and third.

EIGHTH GRADE

Winners of the eighth grade talent assembly held on March 3 were Linda Edwards and Thirza McKinnon doing a tap dance "Strolling in the Park."

Other perfomers included George Fraser, Carol Eurich, JoAnne Dittmar, Karen Krafft, Marilyn Joyce, Brooks Solterman, Carolyn Gagnon, Tom Kackmeister, Nancy Campbell, Martha Hagen, Barbara Galsterer, and Sheryl McGill.

Kay Clark, answering the most circus quiz questions correctly, earned a chance to answer the mystery riddle. Her competitors were Gail Davis, Jan Lemmer, Dick Gardner, Bob Mac Arthur, Jack Mauro, Marcia Moore, Donna Schneider, and Arnold Turner.

Since the mystery was not answered correctly, a second clue was added, which ran as follows:

An age I am and an age I hold
My strength is 4 times 8
Bvt 4 x 8 is about 10 x 6
The strength must be the same
Watch for me up; watch for me down
For clues to win this game.

SEVENTH GRADE

Because ninth graders have had a chance to learn about the circus in the seventh and eighth grades, their quiz was held during the first circus talent assembly, which was put on by seventh graders February 26. The 109 representative, Larry Anderson, held high score to win candy bars and a chance at the circus mystery. Other contestants were: Herb Hinds, Bill Kolleth, Gary Davis, Glenn Bowden, Ted Moyer, Bill Boehm, Dave McMath, Anne Finke, and Rose Marie Krueger.

"I'm in the Mood For Love" was the record successfully pantomimed by Bill Scharffe and Ted Scheall to win over five other acts in the talent part of the program. Other participants were Laurie Hassberger and Sue Hogg, vocal duet; Judy Ryba, piano solo; Anne and Jean Shimmin, pantomime; Madeline Mosca and Sue Roggman, pantomime; and Jim Peters, piano solo.

The first circus mystery clue given by Mr. Eynon was:

One I am, but two I need
Or is it two for two?
For one it's two or thirty-two
But really only one
For one it's two, or twenty-four
But now my riddle's begun.

King of School Shows

The crowd quieted, the music grew stronger, and the queen and her court stepped through the blue curtain into the spotlight to open formally the twenty-fourth annual Spendless and Seemore Circus. Entering regally to the strains of "Verdis'" Grand March was Jeannie Izzo attended by her court made up of Patty Boyd, Jacquie Humphrey, Nancy Needham, and Margaret Whalin.

The other sixteen nominees were Sandy Cornish, Anne Finke, Janet Finley, Barbara Gerow, Nancy Kerns, Rose Marie Krueger, Judy LaFleur, Penny Loeblein, Rachel Miller, Marilyn Price, Sharon Posey, Sandra Rigg, Lana Riseley, Mary Roberts, Sue Robertson, and Roberta Slaton.

Mr. Guy introduced Garron Weiker, South's capable master of ceremonies. Garron was selected from a group of candidates that included Larry Anderson, Charlie Barr, Hank Collier, Gary Davis, and Judy Rappuhn.

Stepping high to the beat of the drums, South's marching band performed with a new twist, waltzing to the cadence of the drums. Under the direction of Mr. Shumate, the band played three snappy numbers titled "Down Main Street," "When Francis Dances With Me," and "National Emblem."

Tapping to the tune "Strolling Through the Park," Linda Edwards and Thirza MacKinnon brought to the circus audience the dance which won first place in the eighth grade talent assembly.

Roller skating is a hobby many of us enjoy ,but South's snappy "Rolldini Troupe" showed us tricks in precision and speed. The group included Wayne Young, Edward Boyd, Dennis Muirhead, Jim Salwasser, Bud Balley, Gordon Jewett, Bill Brown, Jim Walter, Ray Cosby, Dell Rosengren, Lloyd Chapman and Roger Dubrulle. Mr. Noble directed the group.

Decked out in clown suits with attached bells and doing a jingly dance were Miss Zubler's "Split Personalities" who included Carolyn Gagnon, Barbara Bliss, Jill Wellendorf, Barbara Gerow, Joyce Buggia, Sally Ervin, Kay Clark, Brenda Greenberg, Carol Ann Eurich, Joanne Dittmar, Patti Horn, Patti Acker, Sandy Cornish, Sandy Biggers, Gloria Little, Roberta Slaton, Carol O'Conner, Christy Thurlow, and Penny Bliss.

A touch of comedy was supplied by Bill Scharffe and Ted Scheall as they imitated the Liberaces in their pantomime act, "Springtime Mood."

South's Madrigals, dressed in sweatshirts and short skirts, did the "Varsity Drag." Singing and dancing to the tune were Nancy Kerns, Mary Johnston, Sandra Cornish, Anne Finke, Janet Gage, Judy Rappuhn, Sharon Posey, Deanna Salvi, and Pam Richards.

Five boys in black and white costumes, doing almost all of their act while standing on their hands, provided unusual entertainment as the "Upside Down Club." The members of this group were Don Hover, Woody Wilson, Glen Bowden, Ralph Royal, Russel Weaver. They were coached by Mr. Noble.

Have you ever seen human pyramids? We have! The spot light focused on South's own "Ground and Ladder Pyramids." The boys exhibited tricky stunts on the ground and then performed daring stunts in the air. Entertaining the crowds were Mell Patterson, Jack Dockham, Bill Day, Bud Love, Bob Gardner, Dick Neymeiyer, Bill Boehm, Frank Zanner, Jim Zanner, Jack LaDouce, Wendell Wilson, Bill Remington. Al Watson, Bud Balley, Gary Case, Jim Harding, Dee Young, Harry Engels, Jim Roethlisberger, and Gale McFarland. Mr. Wangberg directed this act.

Jim Peters, assisted by Jean and Ann Shimmin, Betty Schmidt, Barbara Lewis, and Tom Kackmeister, cleverly imitated a midget, singing and dancing to "When You Wore A Tulip." This circus novelty act was sponsored by Miss Zubler.

They flew through the air with the greatest of ease! The "Skylarks" performed graceful feats on the double trapeze. Under the direction of Mr. Howay the girls included Frances Philips, Sharon Posey, Myrna Walker, Rose Marie Krueger, Diane Korbein, Nancy Dixon, Carol Anderson, Susan Culver, Connie Holmes, and Joanne Sandow.

Woody Wilson played the guitar and sang the popular "Ballad of Davy Crockett" for the evening performances while a quartet composed of Janet Gage, Jacquie Humphrey, Mary Johnston, and Nancy Kerns sang "No More" for the matinees.

The other act selected from the talent assemblies was a pantomime "Open Up Your Heart and Let The Sun Shine In" which was done by Nancy Campbell, Barbara Galsterer, Martha Hagen, and Sheryl McGill.

High above the crowd were the members of the "Aerial Fantasy." These young performers thrilled the audience with their rhythmic motions on the swinging ladders. Karen McNicoll, Connie Burbank, Barbara Denno, Charmaine Stander, Marilyn Price, Marica Zacharias, Marcia Pfeuffer, and Connie Snider were the aerialists. Miss Vassaw coached these girls.

One-two-three kick! A group of ten high stepping girls kicked their way into the spot light. This gay tap act, "Twenty Feet of Rhythm," was under the guidance of Miss Zubler. The kick line included Thirza MacKinnon, Marilyn Joyce, Mickey Sparks, Karen Krafft, Carol Kempf, Gail Davis, Linda Edwards, Sue Dingman, and Carol Mott.

Garbed in colorful blue and red checked costumes, the "Diamond Dollies" went through their flips and turns on the trampoline. Along with a comedy act by Jo Ellen Boergert, the following girls performed: Judy Phillips, Connie Ruiz, Helen Makara, Gail Smith and Marlene Dennie.

One of the acts that brought the "Oh's" and "Ah's" from the crowd were the "Questionable Kids," Nancy Kerns and Pam MacRae, who performed on the revolving ladders.

Adding to the circus atmosphere were South's clowns. Running through their comic routines were Carol Chamberlain, Sharon Black, Jay Richley, Fred Doerr, Ted Seaman, Jim Ross, Jim Devers, Jim Bloomstrum and his dog, Patsey.

Doing calisthentics and performing with a rubber ball at the same time is one thing, but succeeding is another. Staging a near-flawless exhibition of such a trick were the Ballerettes, Connie Myer, Jerrie Lee Riel, Carolyn Balance, Shelia Cay, Nancy Bigger, Kay Clark, Linda Edwards, Susan Pryer, Alice Rosa, Beverly Salmer, Donna Schneider, Nancy Smith, Bonnie Dewell, Barbara Galsterer, Janet Herbert, Barbara Piechotte, Gloria Blower, Judy Crawford. Miss Vassaw was in charge of the group.

Displaying her talents as the "Sky High Girl," Jill Hegenauer performed daring stunts and tricks a few feet from the ceiling working on the suspended high pole.

Bringing the 1955 Circus to a climax, swinging and whirling in the air, held only by a strap around her neck, Sue Robertson, "The Girl Who Refused To Be Hanged," left the audience breathless with her daring act. Sue was assisted by Barbara Mack.

A special "thank you" is due Miss Naoma Atkinson and Mr. Franklin Brooks who played the organ for a number of acts.

All-City Orchestra Concert

Students from each of the junior and senior high schools in Saginaw met in the Saginaw High gymnasium and presented the annual All-City Orchestra Concert on Sunday, April 17 at 3 p.m. This year's concert was different in that Professor David Mattern from the University of Michigan School of Music was guest conductor.

Pupils participating in the concert from South included: Janet Anderson, Pat Bailey, Richard Bartels, Ralph Buggia,Sam Buggia, Carole Burtch, Jim Bradt, Carol Chamberlain, Barbara Cooper, Joan Eurich, Judy Foote, Connie Holmes, Janet Irving, Karen Krafft, Mike McAllister, Sandra McIntosh, Carol Niederquell, Diane Orr, Barry Plonta, Janice Rock, Carl Stander, Carol Stuart, Leah Vorce, Jim Weirman, and Carol Westwood.

As an opener the orchestra presented Ganne's lively "Father of Victory March." The second number was "Pizzicato Polka," a selection from the Ballet "Sylvia" by Delibes. The next choice was "Poem" by Fibich and "Ballet Music" from Rosamunde by Schubert. The group continued with "Shepherd's Dance" from Henry VIII and the sedate "Minuet" taken from the London Symphony by Haydn. These were followed by a medley of Mexican folk and dance tunes in the "Mexican Overture" by Isaac. For a conclusion the orchestra chose two favorites, "A Mighty Fortress" by Luther and the "Star Spangled Banner."

Professional Assemblies

At our first professional assembly, Basil Milosoroff and his amusing puppets shared the spotlight on September 21. On October 19, artist Bob Wood entertained with his "Chalk Talk," drawing humorous and serious sketches on the blackboard.

Our fourth professional assembly on February 21 featured Miss Shirley Duncan. Miss Duncan's report on her native country, Australia, centered about her two-year tour of the continent.

Charles E. King, baritone, was presented at a January 11 assembly. Mr. King sang a number of spirituals while the student body became the choir. Appearances on "Toast of the Town" and in the movie "Carmen Jones"mark the past performances of Mr. King.

Last on the assembly list was "Mysterious" Brown, a magician who has performed on three continents, who presented an assembly of magic on April 5.

1954 SOCCER CHAMPIONS

Soccer

For the second year in a row South's soccer team won the championship both times with a five wins, no losses and one tie record. We opened the season with a 4-1 victory over Webber on their field. Paul Osterbeck and Nati Rosales each scored two points.

The next week we downed Central 12-0. Coming back after being down 6-5 at the end of the third quarter, we beat North 10-6 at Bliss Park. Paul Osterbeck led the winners with 4 points.

Our fourth game spelled trouble. The perfect season received its only blemish, as Webber tied us 5-5 on October 24.

Again it was Paul Osterbeck's 4 points that led us to victory. This time it was an 8-1 win over Central on October 31. In our last game, we beat North 4-1 to insure the unbeaten season.

At the first semester honor assembly, Coach Noble stated, "Perhaps this was the best soccer team in the school's history." He went on to say, "Although the team from last year had an identical record, I believe this team had the edge on scoring."

Intramural Basketball

The 9A209's, captained by Ron Solak, came through the ninth grade tournament in first place. Other winners were the 8A125's led by Ronald Jenson, and the 7A208's captained by Joe Mason.

Intramural Soccer

In an exciting intramural soccer tournament the 9B132's, 8B219's, and 7B111's, came through victorious. They were captained by Bill Kolleth and Jim Green; Neil Frenzel; and Chuck Alberts.

Junior Basketball

South's junior five finished in last place in junior high competition. Leading in scoring were Bill Riepe and Norm Krogman with 69 and 55 points respectively.

December 2 marked the first of a chain of losses when we were defeated by Central 35-15 on our own floor. Next we bowed to North 37-30 in spite of Bill Riepe's 13 points. A week later we lost to Webber 29-27. Our next encounter with North proved to be our only victory of the season, with the score 29-27. In our second meeting with Webber we were again over-powered, this time to the tune of 38-30. When again we faced Central, their on-rushing quintet over-whelmed us by a score of 50-19. The score board read for our last two games: North 29, South 13; Webber 33 and South 28.

Senior Basketball

This was a dismal season for our seniors who took third place in the City Junior High League with a won 3 lost 6 record.

Our seniors opened the season with a 49-44 victory over Central. Paul Osterbeck's 15 points and Leddy's 12 led the scoring. In the second game of the year North handed us our first loss, 35-29. Leddy's 11 was high for South.

South rolled over Webber 33-19 December 16. Again Leddy was high with 14 while Tom Harvey added 11 points. We were stopped by Central next 54-45. Harvey netted 16 while Herb Hinds and Osterbeck had 9 apiece.

North beat us again 33-28 on January 19. Leddy and Osterbeck with 7 were high while Harvey added 6 points. We defeated Webber 35-33 in our sixth game. Harvey's 12, Osterbeck's 8, and Roger Clark's 7 were high scores for South.

Central wrapped up the senior championship by beating us 44-33 February 3. Harvey, by scoring 10 points, was the leader in scoring with Osterbeck and Leddy scoring 8 and 6 respectively. In the last home game of the year North beat us for the third time 34-28. Hinds, Osterbeck, Leddy and Harvey each scored 6 points.

Webber beat us in the last game of the year, by a 36-35 score. Clark, by scoring 10 points was high for South. Tom Harvey scored 74 points in the nine games this year to emerge the team's leading scorer. His two year total of 150 is also high for the team.

Boys Learn To Dance

To get in step for the 9A Banquet, a learn-to-dance class was held for ninth grade boys. The early birds appeared every day at 7:45 in the boys' gym to take instruction under Miss Vassaw's guidance until 8:15. After the boys became proficient enough in the basic steps, ninth grade girls came into the class as partners. The instruction period lasted for two weeks.

Volleyball

South's volleyball season closed with our team in second place while North and Webber shared top honors. We won six out of the twelve games played.

Off to a fine start on October 5, we defeated Central 15-7; 15-8 both games. On October 20 we played Webber and won the first game with a 15-10 score, but the second game was 15-5 in Webber's favor.

South played its third game with Central in which the score-board read 17-15; 15-8 in our favor.

On November 2 we had a tough battle with North in which we suffered a double defeat. The scores were 15-13; and 15-11.

November 10 marked the date of our fifth game. We lost the first with a 15-8 score. At the beginning of the second game South took the lead but Webber pushed ahead to a 15-10 victory. The final game was played with North on their floor, November 16. In the first game the win was ours with a score 15-7 and we were defeated 15-11 in the second.

Through the Year with the Elementary

SIXTH GRADE—Room 214

In social studies, our class studied South America, China, India, and some of the European countries. Early in the fall, we dramatized the conquest of Peru by Francisco Pizarro.

In arithmetic, we have studied fractions and decimals and many concrete problems. In science, we learned much about insects, weather, health and birds.

We made regular trips to the library and gave many interesting book reports. We made many articles for the Junior Red Cross such as nut cups, tray mats, napkin holders, favors and party hats. Then, too, many pictures were sent in to the museum for an exhibit in May. We are also compiling a scrap-book on the St. Lawrence Seaway.

SIXTH GRADE—Room 222

At the beginning of the year our room studied China. We saw several films and made booklets about China. We have studied India and South America since then.

In February we made a unit of work for the Red Cross. It was fun making nut cups, tray covers, napkin holders, favors and party hats for Washington's birthday.

At Christmas our room gave a play called "While Shepherds Watched." It was the story of a boy named Obed who gave his donkey Cephus to carry the Christ Child from Bethlehem.

Our room learned to play tonettes and to sing three part music. We made chalk drawings and put them in frames to hang on our wall.

FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADE—Room 220

The fifth grade began the year by studying Mexico. When they finished they had a play in which both grades took part. Our parents were invited to attend our play. The sixth grade took up the study of South America.

For Christmas we made gifts and cards for our parents. We enjoyed making tray mats, napkin rings, favors, nut cups, and party hats for the Junior Red Cross to be used on Valentines's day.

Other units we have studied are Medieval Europe, British Isles, France, Italy and Russia. We are now studying China and are looking forward to a play. We have learned many two-part songs. Room 220 sponsored the monitors for the elementary.

FIFTH GRADE—Room 212

We began our fifth grade year by electing our class officers: Stephen Krell, Janet Hatch, and Richard Dana. Later Sally Schmich was elected to serve on the Student Council and Susan Werth was chosen as Red Cross representative for the elementary school.

We toured the United States stopping off at the big cities of each state. We studied Mexico and Canada, too.

In science we studied forest animals, coal, and sea animals. We made a show case showing life in an ocean.

We have edited a weekly newspaper called "The Weekly Star."

We have learned twelve new square dances.

FOURTH GRADE—Room 260

The Elementary Student Council met in our room so we were able to take a very active part in the discussions and activities.

Of the several clubs we had the most interesting were the book and poetry clubs. Our book club met every Wednesday when we discussed the books we had read and recommended them to the other children.

We thought the play, "Hansel and Gretel," was the best one we gave.

FOURTH GRADE—Room 262

We have been busy this year learning many new things and carrying out many activities. While studying Switzerland, we made a plaster and paper mache model of the Swiss Alps and individual booklets. We enjoyed hearing Mrs. Ashworth tell about her trip through Switzerland. We worked out science experiments connected with our studies of weather and magnets. A collection of fossils aroused our interest in prehistoric animals, and committee reports were made in a variety of ways. We tried sewing when we made felt pincushions for Mother's Christmas gift. Paper mache jungle animals, birds, and people were made for a jungle scene during our study of the Belgian Congo. We enjoyed folk dancing, singing, and many art activities. We are working on a movie on birds and an original play based on the Netherlands. We are collecting and illustrating favorite poems in our poetry booklets.

THIRD GRADE—Room 258

We began the year with a study of Indians. During the unit we made pottery, tom-toms, and bows and arrows. We wrote and gave a television show on the American Indians. After studying about the library, we made one of our own. Some of the children wrote their own books. We made candles and did other interesting things when we studied pioneers.

Many arithmetic games and devices were used to learn our combinations and to understand multiplication and division.

THIRD GRADE—Room 252

For the study of pioneers we made a pioneer corner, dipped candles, and gave a pioneer play.

While we were studying Indians we made Indian beads, rugs, dolls, and clay bowls. We also had an Indian trading post. Everyone made a science book. Two frogs lived in our terrarium all winter, and there are many snails in the aquarium.

SECOND AND THIRD GRADE—Room 254

Second and third grade started the year by studying trains. After a train ride to Bay City we built a freight train with an engine and twelve cars. Our radio broadcast included train stories and arithmetic story problems about trains.

Second grade studied food, teeth, and health, and built a cafeteria, while the third grade went into the pioneers and built a log cabin with a loft.

The post office and Indians completed the year.

SECOND GRADE—Room 256

We are in the second grade. We have been studying transportation. We made a city to help us see how important transportation is. We learned about safety in the Fall. We planted plants to see them grow. They were interesting to watch. We worked with time also. We did a few experiments to show that we need air every minute. We tried an experiment. It proved that plants can not go without air either.

SECOND GRADE—Room 160

We had fun in the second grade. We read many interesting books, and played some of the stories. Arithmetic was easy after we discovered how to compare numbers. A counting board helped us to add and carry. All of us liked to sing but we also enjoyed listening to records of music by different composers. We loved to dramatize and make pictures of the rhythm patterns. We can't tell what we liked best but we had lots of fun with our dairy, bakery, grocery store, and post office.

FIRST GRADE—Room 158

Our school year started with Daisy, our horse we made. We had a wooden framework that we covered with plaster. Oh, what fun it was to paint her and give her eyes, nose, a mouth, mane, and a tail! We loved to work and play with her.

After Christmas we built a house. We wrote a story about it. We gave a tea for the mothers and read our story to them.

FIRST GRADE—Room 152

We made a puppet show about "Little Red Riding Hood." We enjoyed having our mothers come to school to help us make the puppets. What fun it was to give the play for our mothers and fathers.

We studied about "Community Helpers." We were happy to have Marilyn Brook's father come to school to tell us about the work of the sheriff and the policeman.

KINDERGARTEN

With the Elementary

This was a good year. We learned to read, write, and spell. When vacation comes we will miss school.

FIRST GRADE—Room 162

We had fun in first grade. We wrote many interesting stories and made many pretty pictures. We like to read and write.

When we studied about our community helpers, we visited the Central Fire Station. After Easter we went for a train ride to Bay City and back.

Most of us wished we could spend our vacation on the farm after we visited the farm.

We visited the greenhouse and made one and raised some plants for our Mothers Day gift.

AM AND PM KINDERGARTEN

We have fun in kindergarten. We work and play. We have learned to color, paint, make scrap books, and make things with clay, blocks and sand. We know many games, songs and rhythms. The patrol boys help us and we obey them. We practice the safety rules we have learned in school. We try to be polite and kind. We share things and take turns. We try to finish what we start. We want to be good first graders next year.

SOPHOMORE DAY

On Thursday, June 9, the 9A's visited Arthur Hill for "Sophomore Day." Patty Boyd gave the response for South in an assembly held in the school auditorium. After the program the incoming tenth graders met with their advisers and toured the building.

With the exception of the pictures on pages 27 and 32, snapshots in our book are the work of Miss Zubler and the camera club. Students and faculty pictures are by the All-States Photo Company of Chicago.

SIS SNOOPER

Howdy Cats!
This crazy mixed up year is kicked.
Dig these mellow lines we've picked.
So come on gang, let's get in swing,
Be prepared for anything!
Williams sure is in the grove
When he spied Kerns he made his move.
Another couple a real gone pair
Is Rosales and McNicoll. Dig me square?
Needham and Leddy took a dive
This crazy twosome is hep to the jive
Marlon Brando made audiences stir
His role in "Waterfront" won him an Os-kerr (Guess who wrote this little gem?
Roger Clark hit bottom again!)
A real gone kid, Grace Kelley's the most!
Her performance in "Country Girl" was something to boast.
Rating high on the T. V. Screen.
"Toast of the Toast" is on the beam.
Perez Prado and the rest of the gang,
Started the mambo craze off with a bang.
"Rock Around the Clock" a boogie sweet to the beat
With Haley and his Comets, this rhythm's real neat!
Another record that shocked us all,
Was "Lola" and her neat "wolf" call.
The best of our crooners is soon to be wed,
Eddie and Debbie to the altar are led.
Fads this year were the greatest yet
Suntans and plaid belts we had to get.
Another must for typical teens
Bermudas with knee socks were sure to be seen.
Hey, you daddy—Os, let's get wise
The ticker shows it's time for goodbyes!
(As lonesome George would say)
So Long, Neighbor!
